

1. What is the Giveaway?

Our giveaway is rooted in the Oji-Cree tradition of sharing wealth during times of celebration. In typical years, we would celebrate the Festival with feasts and gatherings. Due to COVID-19, we came to the decision not to hold an in-person Festival for the second consecutive year, but we want to give back to our supporters and communities in the form of online gift cards for groceries, self-care products, and apparel from Indigenous organizations.

2. Does it cost money to enter?

There are no additional fees for entrance to the giveaway. You can simply show up to an event where a Give-Away is occurring and participate.

3. What are the prizes?

The prizes are Gift Cards from the following companies: Kokum Scrunchies, Good Minds Books, Skwalwen Botanicals, Yukon Soaps, Uasau Soaps, Quw'utsun' Made, nativelynotes, Shades of Grey Pet Treats, Firefly Creative Writing, and WIFT-Toronto. Gift Cards range from $75 to $400.

4. How will I know if I've won?

You will be notified by an imagineNATIVE representative during the event and receive an email within 5 days of winning a gift card.

5. How will I receive my prize?

The prize will be emailed to the winner after being contacted by an imagineNATIVE representative.

6. Does the Gift Card have an expiration date?

Terms of the Gift Card will be given in acceptance of the prize.

7. Why am I not eligible for the giveaway if I live in Quebec?

Unfortunately, due to strict regulations and laws in Quebec for events like our giveaway, we are unable to include Quebec residents.

8. Do I have to participate if I register for the Festival or attend events?

Participation is on a purely opt-in basis.

9. Can I win more than one gift card?

You are eligible to win up to one (1) gift card for each event where a Give-Away prize is offered.
